

JAMES ANDERSON

Levan Resident Funeral Set

Feb 26
Feb 27
1957

LEVAN — Funeral services will be conducted here Saturday at 1 p. m. for James Anderson, 82, retired farmer and stock man, who died at the Utah Valley hospital in Provo Tuesday morning after a lingering illness.

Friends may call at the Anderson Funeral home in Nephi Friday evening, and Saturday from 11 a. m. until time of services at the chapel in Levan.

Bishop J. Clair Collard of the Levan Ward will conduct the services and interment in Levan cemetery will be directed by Anderson Funeral home of Nephi.

Mr. Anderson was born March 13, 1874, at Fountain Green, to James J. and Annie K. Eskelsen Anderson. He married Mary Aagard of Levan December 13, 1899 at the Manti LDS temple.

Mr. Anderson was active in the LDS Church, having served a mission to Norway. He was a high priest at the time of his death, and had been a teacher of the adult class of the Levan Ward Sunday school for many years. He also had served as president of the YMMIA during his earlier lifetime. He attended the B. Y. U. and the U. S. A. C.

Active in community affairs, he had served also as a Deputy Juab County assessor for 10 years; and was a member of the Levan Town Board for several years. He headed the Levan Cattlemen's association and the Levan Irrigation Company, each for several terms.

Survivors are his widow of Provo, where they have resided since 1955; three daughters and five sons: Mrs. Anna Connelly of Provo; Mrs. Edna Turner of Tooele; Mrs. Lucille Moody of San Diego; James M. Anderson, Nephi; Clarence A. Anderson, Salt Lake City; Louis E., Rulon A. and Elden J. Anderson, Garden City, Kansas; 22 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; a brother and a sister: Joseph Anderson and Mrs. Lease Jensen, both of Fountain Green.